BELEVEDERE PALACE: His Imperial majesty Rupert II, Emperor of Austria, King of Hungary, Lord High Protector of Croatia and Montenegro, Archduke of Serbia, Count of Venice, and Earl of Transylvania, to H.R.H. The King of England: Now, watch that? If the rest of us are willing to stay at peace what's with you, anyway? Don't get so grabby or we may have to go to war just to stop you. Well, anyway, if you insist on moving, how about an alliance?

Austria to Italy: I really am sorry about this, but you have lost the roll of the dice, and one has to grow somehow. Better luck next time!

Caracas, Croatia: The Croatian Liberation Movement, Espionage Division, announces its forecasts for Fall, 1903 Austrian intentions: Greece will be fortified, Rome will fall, France will ally, and the Emperor will receive a mysterious visit from the Mad Satirical Monk. (M) Arkham, Mass. The Emperor of Austria will not receive a mysterious visit from the Mad Satirical Monk. The Mad satirical Monk will be quite open and above-board with the Emperor. Anybody want to take bets on the Emperess???

Rome, Italy A Man from the North (of Italy) has volunteered to settle the dispute between Queen Victoria and Emperess Lucrezia for the Crown of Europe. His credentials as an arbitrator include the successful resolution of delicate disputes of this nature throughout Italy and France.

The Man gathered all the principles of the matter, including Queen and Emperess, General Derculede, Count Cosmo Bordisha, and the noted Mad Satirical Monk. Denouncing one and all alike, the Man announced that there would be a General settlement of the dispute: "Let the ladies come to me singly and present their cases as before a Court of Law! there is but one Crowned Head of Europe, and She will be Determined!"

FROM THE NEWSDESK OF RADIO ROMANY, ABOARD THE GYPSIE FLEET

Ambassadors from the tiny North African...OOPS...American Free City of Buffalo^{state} have met with United States and Deseret officials aboard the Turko-Roman armed coal tender Nibelung to discuss a proposed treaty between the three sovereignties over New World trade. Observing the conference are dignitaries from the Bear Creek Republic, which played an active part in the military defeat of the other two parties by Buffalo Snort. Colonies of the city-state have sent delegates to aid their mother principality in reaching a final decision concerning the two-continent trade quarrel which has three times resulted in the acquisition of fresh territory. Of the supportive dignitaries, Prime Minister Ouan LeGault of Canada and Grao Choca-Chola of Brazil have been most vigorous in demanding that Buffalo Snort take a hard line with regard to negotiations. Observers feel that the recently broken U.S. blockade of those two countries has left permanent scars in the somber face of inter-American relations.

Deseret minister of state Morton Randolph, however, has ~~assured~~ his satisfaction at the commencement of the negotiations and has announced that the embargo on hours, which finally brought Buffalo Snort to the conference table after four years of constant victory, will begin to let up.

Speaking from the Ouroboros Palace in Herculanium, press minister Louis Sade congratulated the free city on its decision to discuss peaceful means of settling the dispute. "We must not forget the powerful temptations for vindictiveness that beset the Buffalo people, whose memory of the flooding of the Great Plains which almost obliterated their thriving metropolis cannot be but a bitter one. Nonetheless we assure them again that the world looks on with the utmost encouragement at their clemency, reasonableness and practicality at the conference table."

Informed sources indicate that the minister has withdrawn his clandestine threat to intercede with the Heart of Ahriman. Commentators credit this move on Sade's part with averting the long-feared transportation of U.S. and Deseret populations to the Land of the General. Buffalo Snort Chairman Oliver Warbucks has made no official pronouncements, but was act. of his Bord of Directors in voting for peace negotiations has been interpreted as a sign that the deraded blanket bomb will remain unused and warfare be limited to conventional weapons...

Players in all games will kindly note the resolution of the battle in the Kiel area...we resolve that a successful attack from the 'front' cuts support in all cases. The current ruling is consistent with previously established and announced MISKATONIC UNIVERSITY practice.

press section...

KelIn (Its still ours, you know) Turning in the general direction of Russian Monarchs Seas-pool of intrigue, His Imperial Majesty gave vent to a truly Imperial 'Braux cheer'.

"That for such low treachery and the transparent excuses used in trying to rationalise His way out", he said of the Russian Mob Boss.

"It will be Hippy-Haven in the Turner house before we traset one farther than we can club him! Due to the devious mind of the Russian carpet-bagger, We anticipate a major victory in Kiel. He(the platitude pusher) will doubtless outsmart himself before our endless Tutonic 'stupidity'....
